 - (f) To purchase, take on lease, hire or otherwise acquire in Hong Kong or elsewhere real or personal property or any rights or interests therein for effectuating any of its objects, and in particular any lands, houses, patents, concessions, copyrights, licences, stocks, material or property of any description and to work, use, sell, let, surrender, mortgage, charge, dispose of or otherwise deal with the same or any other property of the Association, including, in respect of any patent or patent rights belonging to the Association the grant of licences or authorities to any person, corporation, or company to work the same.

- (g) In furtherance of the objects of the Association but not otherwise, to develop, improve and utilize any land within Hong Kong or elsewhere acquired by the Association, or in which the Association is interested, and lay out and prepare the same for building purposes, construct, alter, pull down, decorate, maintain, fit up and improve buildings, roads, and conveniences, and to plant, pave, drain, maintain, let on building lease or building agreement and such land, and enter into contracts and agreements of all kinds with builders and tenants of and others interested in any such land.
- (h) [Deleted]
- (i) To prepare, print and publish any non-profit making periodicals, books, circulars, leaflets or other literature for the promotion of the objects of the Association and to distribute among its members and others, information and statistics on all matters affecting the said objects, and in these or other activities undertake the duties of advertising and publicity agents.
- (j) [Deleted]
- (k) To enter into agreements with any government or authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, and to obtain from any such government or authorities all rights, concessions and privileges that are conducive to the Association's objects or any of them.
- (l) To establish, promote, or assist in establishing or promoting, and to subscribe to, or become a member of, any other associations or clubs whose objects are similar or in part similar to the objects of the Association, or the establishment or promotion of which may further the objects of the Association and provided that such associations or clubs shall prohibit the distribution of their income and property amongst their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Association under or by virtue of Clause 5 hereof.
- (m) To support and subscribe to any charitable body, and any institution, society or club having objects similar to the Association provided that the charitable body, institution, society or club shall prohibit the distribution of its income and property amongst its members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Association under or by virtue of Clause 5 hereof, and subject to Clause 5 hereof, to give pensions, gratuities or charitable aid to any persons who have served the Association, or to the wife, widow, children or other relatives of any such person; to make payments towards insurance and to form and contribute to provident funds and welfare funds for any persons who serve the Association.

- (n) To procure contributions to the Association and to accept donations, endowments and gifts of money, lands, hereditaments, stocks, funds, shares, securities and rebates, commissions and any other assets whatsoever and either subject or not subject to any special trusts or conditions.
 - (o) To invest and deal with the monies of the Association not immediately required, upon such securities and in a reasonable and prudent manner as may from time to time be determined by the Association.
 - (p) To receive money on deposit or loan and borrow or raise money in a reasonable and prudent manner as the Association shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures, and to secure the repayment of any money borrowed, raised or owing by mortgage, charge or lien upon all or any of the property or assets of the company (both present and future), and also by a similar mortgage, charge or lien to secure and guarantee the performance by the Association.
 - (q) To open and operate banking account or accounts with any bank or banks for the object of the Association.
 - (r) To repay or refund to persons who have advanced or subscribed money in connection with the promotion, formation and incorporation of the Association as aforesaid the amount of the money so advanced or subscribed by them.
 - (s) To establish branches, agencies and/or local boards in any place in Hong Kong and elsewhere abroad as the Association may from time to time think fit and the same to regulate, direct and discontinue, dispose of, or otherwise deal with as may be expedient.
 - (t) To do all or any of the above things by or through agents or otherwise and either alone or in conjunction with others.
 - (u) To do all such other lawful things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them. The objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall unless otherwise expressed be independent main objects and shall not be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Association.
 - (v) The powers set forth in the Seventh Schedule of the Companies Ordinance (Cap. 32) are hereby excluded
4. The Association shall be a non-profit making and non-political body.
 5. The income and property of the Association, whencesoever derived, shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Association as set forth in this Memorandum of Association, and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit, to the members of the Association. Provided that nothing herein shall prevent the payment, in good faith, of reasonable and proper remuneration to any officer or servant of the Association or to any member of the Association not being a member of the Council or the governing body of the Association in return for any service actually rendered to the Association, nor prevent the payment of interest at a rate not exceeding at any time the prime lending rate on money lent, or reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by any member to the Association but so that no member of the Council or the governing body of the Association shall be appointed to any salaried office of the Association or any office of the Association paid by fees and no remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth shall be given by the Association to any member of the Council or the governing body except repayment of out-of-pocket expenses and interest at abovementioned rate on money lent or reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let.

6. The liability of the members is limited
7. Every member of the Association undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Association in the event of its being wound up while he is a member, or within one year after he ceases to be a member, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Association contracted before he ceases to be a member, and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, such amount as may be required, not exceeding ten Hong Kong dollars (HK$10).
8. If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Association there remains, after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Association, but shall be given or transferred to the Mother School to be used solely for education purposes or to some other institution or institutions, having objects similar to the objects of the Association, and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property amongst its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Association under or by virtue of Clause 5 above, such institution or institutions to be determined by the members of the Association at or before the time of dissolution and in default thereof by a Judge of the High Court of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region having jurisdiction in regard to charitable funds and, if this provision cannot be effected, then to some charitable object.
9. True accounts shall be kept of the sums of money received and expended by the Association, and the matters in respect of which such receipts and expenditure take place, and of the property, credits and liabilities of the Association; and, subject to any reasonable restrictions as to the time and manner of inspecting the same that may be imposed in accordance with the regulations of the Association for time being in force, shall be open to the inspection of the members. Once at least in every year the accounts of the Association shall be examined and the correctness of the balance sheet ascertained by one or more properly qualified Auditor or Auditors

If any member shall wilfully refuse or neglect to comply with any of the provisions of the Memorandum and Articles or by-laws of the Association or shall be guilty of any conduct unworthy of a gentleman or likely be injurious to the Association as the case may be, such member shall be liable to expulsion by a resolution of the Council, provided that not less than seven days before the meeting at which such resolution is passed notice in writing shall be given by the Secretary to any such member of the intended resolution for his expulsion, and that he shall be entitled to give in writing an explanation or defence he may think fit. The Council shall have the absolute and unfettered discretion to accept or reject any such explanation or defence, and its decision to expel any member shall be final and conclusive. A member expelled under this article shall forfeit all rights in and claims upon the Association.

MEMBERSHIP SUBSCRIPTION

12. The membership subscriptions payable by members of the Association shall be such as the Council shall from time to time prescribe.

13. Membership subscriptions are not refundable and must be paid in such manners as stipulated in these articles.

GENERAL MEETINGS

14. There shall be an Annual General Meeting to be held once in every calendar year at such time (not being more than 15 months after the holding of the preceding Annual General Meeting) and place as may be prescribed by the Council, for the purpose of receiving the Annual Report, adopting the Statements of Account, and electing Members of Council and Auditors. Provided that so long as the Association holds its first annual general meeting within 18 months of its incorporation, it need not hold an annual general meeting in the year of its incorporation or in the following year.

15. The Council may, whenever it thinks fit, convene an Extraordinary General Meeting and extraordinary general meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or in default, may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by Section 113 of the Ordinance. If at any time there are not within Hong Kong sufficient Members of Council capable of acting to form a quorum, any 2 Members of Council or any 10 Full Members of the Association may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the Directors

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETING

16. Subject to the provisions of Section 114 of the Ordinance relating to the annual general meeting and a meeting for the passing of special resolutions, a minimum of 21 days' written notice of general meeting (exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served, but inclusive of the day for which notice is given) specifying the place, the day, and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business, shall be given. In the event of any general meeting which is not an annual general meeting or a meeting for the passing of a special resolution, a minimum of 14 day's written notice with particulars as required hereinabove in this article shall be given.

17. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at any meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETING

18. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Full Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; save as herein otherwise provided, 30 Full Members personally present shall be a quorum.

19. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting if convened upon the requisition of Full Members shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, 15 Full Members present shall be a quorum.

20. The Council shall elect a Member of Council to act as chairman of the general meeting.

21. The chairman of the general meeting may with the consent of the meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

22. Each Full Member will carry one vote at all general meeting.

23. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote shall be decided on a show of hands or by polling if so demanded by the chairman or by at least 5 Full Members present in person or by proxy. Unless a poll be so demanded a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of proceedings of the Association shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

24. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote.

25. No Full Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all monies presently payable by him to the Association have been paid.

26. On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy on the proxy form prepared by the Association.

27. The proxy form shall be filled in writing under the hand of the appointer or his attorney duly authorized in writing, and shall be deposited at the registered office of the Association not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or in the case of a poll, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
